Inclement Weather Postpones COVID-19 Vaccine Appointments Scheduled From 10:30AM to 1:30PM Thursday March 25

HAMILTON COUNTY, TN – Due to inclement weather, the Hamilton County Health Department is postponing COVID-19 vaccination appointments scheduled from 10:30AM to 1:30PM on Thursday, March 25. New appointments are now scheduled at the same time and location Wednesday, March 31st.

Postponed vaccine appointments for March 25:

- Appointments that begin at 2, 2:30 or 3PM have been rescheduled for Tuesday, March 30
- Read today's earlier press release here: <https://bit.ly/3cnZ1Gt>

People who have questions are invited to call the following numbers:

- English first dose appointment line: 423-209-5398
- English second dose appointment line: 423-209-5399
- Spanish appointment line: 423-209-5384
- Bilingual COVID-19 hotline: 423-209-8383

Note: call center and hotline hours may change due to inclement weather.

"Our main priority is providing a safe environment for staff and community members to participate in the COVID-19 vaccination and testing process. Due to the risk of inclement weather, we made the decision to postpone or cancel today's events," says Health Department Administrator Becky Barnes.
